The Origin of St. Valentine

The origin of St. Valentine, and how many St. Valentines there were, remains a mystery. One opinion is that he was a Roman martyred for refusing to give up his Christian faith. Other historians hold that St. Valentine was a temple priest jailed for defiance during the reign of Claudius. Whoever he was, Valentine really existed because archaeologists have unearthed a Roman catacomb and an ancient church dedicated to Saint Valentine. In 496 AD, Pope Gelasius marked February 14th as a celebration in honor of his martyrdom. He is the patron of Love, Young People and Happy Marriages.

Seeds and Sacraments
Sacrament of Matrimony

Seeds and growth are signs of life. Seeds need to be tended, watered, weeded, nurtured and fed in order for growth to happen and life to be sustained. There are many forms of seeds, all with the potential to grow into a beautiful plant, some even flowering into colorful, fragrant flowers.

In some ways, seeds reflect what happens in our own lives. From the beginning God has sown the seed of His love and life within us. Sacraments are special encounters with the Divine that help us grow and blossom as disciples of Jesus. The sacraments are caring signs of God's watering, weeding, nurturing, feeding, and tending to us as we walk through the joys and sorrows of life. Sacraments are gifts from God that touch us with God's love in special ways. As we continue our faith exploration of the sacraments, we now look at the Sacrament of Matrimony.

The Bible begins with Adam and Eve being created in God's likeness. God tells them to be fruitful and multiply. Their love for each other is the image of the love God has for us. Whenever the authors of the Old Testament wanted to show the beauty of the relationship between the Israelites and their God, they would often compare it with marriage. One such example can be found in Isaiah 62:4-5.

No more shall men call you "Forsaken,"
or your land "Desolate,"
But you shall be called "My Delight,"
and your land "Espoused."
For the Lord delights in you, and makes your land his spouse.
As a young man marries a virgin,
your Builder shall marry you;
And as a bridegroom rejoices in his Bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

When the Catholic Church teaches that marriage between two baptized persons is a sacrament, it is saying that the couple's relationship expresses in a unique way the unbreakable bond of love between Christ and his people. Like the other six sacraments of the Church, marriage is a sign or symbol which reveals the Lord Jesus and through which his divine life and love are communicated.

In the Sacrament of Matrimony, a man and a woman are united in such a way that they become one flesh, each belonging to one another. Matrimony is a celebration of a lifelong commitment of faithful love. Living together in marriage is not the only way in which people love one another, but marriage is certainly the supreme example of human love.

In a sacramental marriage, God's love becomes present to the spouses in their total union and also flows through them to their family and community. By their permanent, faithful and exclusive giving to each other, symbolized in their sexual union, the couple reveals something of God's unconditional love The sacrament of Christian marriage involves their entire life as they journey together through the ups and downs of marriage and become more able to give to and receive from each other.

Catholic teaching also holds that sacraments bring grace to those who receive them with the proper disposition. Grace is a way of describing how God shares the divine life with us and gives us the help we need to live as followers of Christ. In marriage, the grace of this sacrament brings to the spouses the particular help they need to be faithful and to be good parents. It also helps the couple to serve others beyond their immediate family and to show the community that a loving and lasting marriage is both desirable and possible. In the exchange of promises during the marriage ceremony, the couple administers the sacrament to each other. There must be an official Church witness present, either a priest or a deacon, because Matrimony is an act of public worship, a community prayer, bringing God's blessing to the couple. Once the couple is married, their home becomes a domestic church, for the Church is whole and entire in a family built on the foundation of the Sacrament of Matrimony.

Let us remember to pray for our own marriages, the marriages of our families and friends, and all the marriages in our faith community that through the special grace of the sacrament, they may continue to bear witness to each of us of the faithfulness and love of God.
